

English Literature - A Level (AQA)

English Literature allows you to study works of literature in greater depth than before, such as novels, plays, and poetry. You will think critically and analytically about the texts you are studying, thinking about the meaning and influence of them. The course covers three areas - telling stories, exploring conflict and making connections - covered across a mixture of coursework assignments and exams.

WHAT WILL I STUDY?

The texts offered for study range from the 16th century to the present day, covering a wide area of subjects. Texts covered may include:

- Texts on Paris, France
- Novels, such as Frankenstein, Dracula, The Handmaid's Tale or The Lovely Bones
- Poets, such as John Donne, Robert Browning, Seamus Heaney and Carol Ann Duffy
- Drama, such as Othello, All My Sons, A Streetcar Named Desire or The Herd
- Creative writing, such as The Great Gatsby, The Kite Runner, Into The Wild or The Suspicions of Mr. Whicher

WHAT WILL I NEED?

King's Cross centre

You will need:

- Three GCSEs at grade 5 or above, including English Language, plus two further GCSEs at grade 4 or above, including Maths
- If your English Language GCSE is at grade 5, one of your three GCSEs at grade 5 or above must be a literary subject (e.g. History, Business Studies, Sociology, Geography)
- A reference from your previous school/college

All applicants must have an interview to confirm that A Levels are suitable for them.

Please be aware that as this subject includes coursework, as well as a public exam set by the exam board, you will only be permitted to have a choice of one other subject which includes coursework.
