

Spanish - A Level (AQA)

A Level Spanish builds upon the knowledge gained at GCSE, giving you a sound understanding of how to use your language in various contexts and situations - at home, abroad, with friends, or in the workplace.

Spanish is the second most widely-spoken language in the world and one of the most widely understood languages in Europe, with over 400 million speakers. Studying A Level Spanish can provide you with the speaking, listening and understanding skills to continue your studies in Spanish at university, as well as equipping you to work and travel in Europe, Central and South America, and other Spanish-speaking countries.

WHAT WILL I STUDY?

Speaking - You will be able to communicate with over 400 million people across the world

Listening - You will be able to understand spoken Spanish, as well as watch Spanish films and TV shows, and listen to podcasts and music

Reading - You will be able to read Spanish books, newsletters and magazines, as well as alerts and notices

Writing - You will be able to write in many different styles, for different audiences, using the most appropriate styles

WHAT WILL I NEED?

King's Cross centre

You will need:

- Three GCSEs at grade 5 or above, including English Language, plus two further GCSEs at grade 4, including Maths
- GCSE Spanish at grade 6 or higher
