

Railway Engineering Operative - Level 2 Intermediate Apprenticeship

The apprenticeship is a great opportunity for learners who want to develop their skills and knowledge in the Rail Industry. Roles can include working with track Traction and Rolling Stock, Signalling etc. By completing this apprenticeship, you will gain a nationally recognised qualification, enhance your career prospects, and demonstrate your commitment to professional standards.

WHO IS IT FOR?

This course is for new entrants to the rail industry.

PROGRESSION

By completing this apprenticeship, learners will gain a nationally recognised qualification and the required certificates to work in high paying rail jobs.

TRAINING

- Level 2 Rail Engineering (Competence)
- Level 2 Rail Engineering (Technical Knowledge)
- Functional Skills English and Maths Level 2

END POINT ASSESSMENT

A 3 month EPA process includes your portfolio, occupational competence interviews.

NEXT STEPS

Duration: 2 Years

Location: Workplace and College

Sector: Engineering

Next step may include the Rail Engineering Level 3 Apprenticeship.

KEY EMPLOYERS

- Network Rail
- Colas
- DLR
- Balfour Beatty
- Cleshar
- VGC

FUTURE OPPORTUNITIES

Career progression includes Level 3 Apprenticeship, or further progress into higher jobs as a Site Manager, Machine Operator, Hand Back Engineer or a Maintenance Engineer.

Duration: 2 Years

Location: Workplace and College

Sector: Engineering

