Music Performance and Production Level 2 Diploma

This course is for musicians who want to enter the music industry as performers, producers, singers/songwriters or those who want to get into a business role within the industry. You will study and develop skills in performance, production, composition, musicianship and music business, and will have the opportunity to record in our state-of-the-art recording studios.

This hands-on course is both practical and theoretical, focusing on vocational projects to develop your performance, composition and production skills, as well as your understanding of the music industry and the job roles within it.

We have industry-standard rehearsal and technical facilities to help prepare you for ensemble performance and music production.

WHAT WILL I STUDY?

Whilst on this one year course you will study:

- An introduction to music performance
- An introduction to music production
- Listening skills for music performance and production
- Composition and Songwriting
- Contextual research for music performance and production
- Music performance skills and practice
- Music production skills and practice

WHAT WILL I NEED?

You will need:

- Four GCSEs at grade 3 or above, including English and Maths or an equivalent Level 1 qualification at Merit (and Functional Skills in English and Maths)

All applicants must have an interview and audition to confirm that the course is suitable for them.
