

Creative Mayor's Academy: Skills Bootcamp: TV Production

This course aims to give a practical hands-on introduction to multi-camera TV studio production. It will include many of the technical and production roles in the studio including camera operation, sound mixing, directing and vision mixing to name but a few. The process of realising video productions from dual column scripts will be covered along with a strong accent on health and safety, studio protocols and team-work.

The course will be taught by Stephen Sadler who has over twenty years experience of working in TV studios both in technical and gallery production roles. He has worked extensively for ITV, BBC and corporate productions in many different genres and spent three years as a freelance TV Studio Director at Sky News.

The daily session topics are as follows:

WHAT WILL I NEED?

You should be able to follow written and verbal instructions, demonstrations, hand-outs and health and safety information, and will be invited to take part in group discussion. You must be willing to work as part of a team. Some knowledge and understanding of production would be useful.

Please be prepared to provide your residency documents such as a passport, EU citizen ID card, UK Birth Certificate or Biometric Card. If you have been in the UK for less than 3 years or have entered the UK with a visa you will need to provide evidence that you are eligible to study in the UK - your visa, your biometric card that covers the duration of your course or any relevant home office documents to support your residency should all be uploaded. If you're an EU, EEA or Swiss citizen we will need to see evidence of 'Pre-Settled' or 'Settled-status' documents. Also for funding purposes we would need to see evidence of payslips if working (within the last 3 months). If you are receiving benefits (e.g JSA, ESA, Universal Credit (UC), Housing benefits etc. please bring evidence of this).

WHAT CAN I DO AFTER?

Support into work in entry level roles through our employability team.
