

Criminology - Level 3 Diploma (WJEC)

Criminology is the study of why crime occurs. In this A Level equivalent, you will study a range of theories of why individuals commit crimes, as well as how society manages crime. Criminology is an interdisciplinary subject which means that it draws on psychological, sociological, and biological theories as well as looking at how crime is dealt with by law and by governments.

WHAT WILL I STUDY?

Topics covered can include:

- Changing Awareness of Crime
- Criminological Theories
- Crime Scene to Court Room
- Crime and Punishment

WHAT WILL I NEED?

You will need:

- Three GCSEs at grade 5 or above, including Maths and English Language, plus two further GCSEs at grade 4
- If your English Language GCSE is at grade 5, one of your three GCSEs at grade 5 or above must be a literary subject (e.g. History, Business Studies, Sociology, Geography)
- A reference from your previous school/college

All applicants must have an interview to confirm that an A Level programme is suitable for them.

Please be aware that as this subject includes coursework, you will only be permitted to have a choice of one other subject which includes coursework. Your third subject choice must be an exam-only assessed subject. For example, you would not be permitted to take Criminology, English Language & Literature and History as these all include coursework.

When applying for an A Level programme at Westminster Kingsway, please refer to the general entry requirements on our A Level Courses page as well as the subject-specific details listed above.

HOW WILL I BE ASSESSED?

Start Date: 2 September 2024
